

1981 Index to Security World Articles

As a reader service, Security World presents an editorial index of the feature articles that appeared in the magazine in 1981.

Title

A

A Ring of Security for a Royal Wedding. Peter Evans. December, Page 32.
Appraising the Successful Investigator. Charles Sennwald. January, Page 40.

B

Before You Buy Computer-Based Access Control...Richard Bajackson. September, Page 60.
Be Sure Your Security is Legally Secure. David L. Steeno. June, Page 34.
Blending Basic Elements for Budget Solutions. December, Page 20.

C

Campus Protection Requires a Hybrid Design. August, Page 32.
Computer Crime: The Continuing Problem. Herchell Britton. August, Page 71.
Controlling Pilferage in Industrial Plants. May, Page 31.

E

Evaluation Can Ease Security Staff Management. Robert Smith. September, Page 36.

F

Fire Protection for Flammable Materials. July, Page 36.
Fire Safety Means Using the Right Equipment. May, Page 44.

I

Insurance, a New Defense Against Terrorism. October, Page 20.
Integrating Safeguards for Nuclear Security. March, Page 40.
Integrating Systems for Maximum Protection. August, Page 64.
Interviews & Interrogations. William F. Beane. May, Page 48.

K

Keep Fire Systems Functioning. Nello Di Rezze. May, Page 50.
Keeping Up with Fire Codes. March, Page 28.

M

MGM Grand: Gambling With Fire Safety? March, Page 20
MGM Grand Update: $5 Million Fire System. June, Page 40.

N

New Challenges & Tactics in Bank Security. April, Page 22.
The New Haven Arson Program One Year Later. March, Page 26.
A New Idea in Fire Blankets. January, Page 33.
Nuclear Plant Security Needs a Systems Approach. June, Page 24.

O

Organizing a Security Department. May, Page 34.

P

The Pros & Cons of Proprietary and Contract Security Forces. July, Page 32.
Protecting A Complete Community: Campus Security. August, Page 30.
Protecting Software. May, Page 30.

R

R & D Security: Protecting Your Profit Potential. June, Page 38.
Risk Management: Balancing Threats and Protection. April, Page 30.

S

School Security With a Solid Track Record. September, Page 50.
Securing a Shipping Dock. May, Page 26.
Security Education: Where to Get It. January, Page 21.
Security at the NY Telephone Company. Robert L. Perry. May, Page 36.
Security and Public Relations: Crisis Reporting. Alan B. Bernstein. January, Page 34.
Security Retrofit & Review Survey. February, Page 20.
Security and Safety Walk Hand in Hand. September, Page 28.
Security World Equipment Focus: Access Controls. June, Page 30.
Security World Equipment Focus: CCTV Systems. February, Page 32.
Security World Equipment Focus: Perimeter Protection. September, Page 44.
Security World Equipment Focus: Fire Protection Systems. March, Page 30.

1981 Index to Security World Articles

As a reader service, Security World presents an editorial index of the feature articles that appeared in the magazine in 1981.

Title

A

A Ring of Security for a Royal Wedding. Peter Evans. December, Page 32.
Appraising the Successful Investigator. Charles Sennwald. January, Page 40.

B

Before You Buy Computer-Based Access Control...Richard Bajackson. September, Page 60.
Be Sure Your Security is Legally Secure. David L. Steeno. June, Page 34.
Blending Basic Elements for Budget Solutions. December, Page 20.

C

Campus Protection Requires a Hybrid Design. August, Page 32.
Computer Crime: The Continuing Problem. Herchell Britton. August, Page 71.
Controlling Pilferage in Industrial Plants. May, Page 31.

E

Evaluation Can Ease Security Staff Management. Robert Smith. September, Page 36.

F

Fire Protection for Flammable Materials. July, Page 36.
Fire Safety Means Using the Right Equipment. May, Page 44.

I

Insurance, a New Defense Against Terrorism. October, Page 20.
Integrating Safeguards for Nuclear Security. March, Page 40.
Integrating Systems for Maximum Protection. August, Page 64.
Interviews & Interrogations. William F. Beane. May, Page 48.

K

Keep Fire Systems Functioning. Nello Di Rezze. May, Page 50.
Keeping Up with Fire Codes. March, Page 28.

M

MGM Grand: Gambling With Fire Safety? March, Page 20
MGM Grand Update: $5 Million Fire System. June, Page 40.

N

New Challenges & Tactics in Bank Security. April, Page 22.
The New Haven Arson Program One Year Later. March, Page 26.
A New Idea in Fire Blankets. January, Page 33.
Nuclear Plant Security Needs a Systems Approach. June, Page 24.

O

Organizing a Security Department. May, Page 34.

P

The Pros & Cons of Proprietary and Contract Security Forces. July, Page 32.
Protecting A Complete Community: Campus Security. August, Page 30.
Protecting Software. May, Page 30.

R

R & D Security: Protecting Your Profit Potential. June, Page 38.
Risk Management: Balancing Threats and Protection. April, Page 30.

S

School Security With a Solid Track Record. September, Page 50.
Securing a Shipping Dock. May, Page 26.
Security Education: Where to Get It. January, Page 21.
Security at the NY Telephone Company. Robert L. Perry. May, Page 36.
Security and Public Relations: Crisis Reporting. Alan B. Bernstein. January, Page 34.
Security Retrofit & Review Survey. February, Page 20.
Security and Safety Walk Hand in Hand. September, Page 28.
Security World Equipment Focus: Access Controls. June, Page 30.
Security World Equipment Focus: CCTV Systems. February, Page 32.
Security World Equipment Focus: Perimeter Protection. September, Page 44.
Security World Equipment Focus: Fire Protection Systems. March, Page 30.

Security World Equipment Focus: Safes & Vaults. April, Page 26.

Security World Equipment Focus: Space Protection. October, Page 26.

Security World Survey: Contract/Proprietary Guards: How They Suit Users' Needs. July, Page 20.

Security World Survey: What Corporate Executives are Thinking About Security. October, Page 35.

Specifying a Security System. February, Page 29.

Sprinkler Systems: Cost Effective Fire Fighter. August, Page 54.

Strong Security With a British Flavor. Tom Sandrock. March, Page 34.

Student Patrols Stretch Campus Security Dollars. August, Page 40.

Surveillance and Motion Detection in a Single Package. August, Page 44.

T

The FAA's Security Challenge: Quick and Constant Coordination. December, Page 28.

Training Techniques for Executive Protection. February, Page 36.

Trend for the '80s? For Rent: High Security Office Space. July, Page 39.

20th Century Security in a 19th Century Setting. Jeffrey R. Keenan. April, Page 34.

20 Questions on Computer Software Security. Al Iagnemma. September, Page 56.

W

Watch What You Say in an Interview. October, Page 30. □

Subject

ACCESS CONTROL

Before You Buy Computer-Based Access Control. . . . September, Page 60.

Security World Equipment Focus: Access Controls. June, Page 30.

BANK SECURITY

Security World Equipment Focus: Safes & Vaults. April, Page 26.

New Challenges and Tactics in Bank Security. April, Page 22.

BUILDING SECURITY

Trend for the '80s? For Rent: High Security Office Space. July, Page 39.

CAMPUS/SCHOOL SECURITY

Campus Protection Requires a Hybrid Design. July, Page 32.

Protecting a Complete Community: Campus Security. July, Page 30.

School Security With a Solid Track Record. September, Page 50.

Student Patrols Stretch Campus Security Dollars. July, Page 40.

CLOSED CIRCUIT TELEVISION

Security World Equipment Focus: CCTV Systems. February, Page 32.

Surveillance and Motion Detection in a Single Package. July, Page 44.

COMPUTER & DATA SECURITY

Computer Crime: The Continuing Problem. August, Page 71.

Protecting Software. May, Page 40.

20 Questions on Computer Software. September, Page 56.

ENERGY MANAGEMENT/SECURITY SYSTEMS

Integrating Systems for Maximum Protection. August, Page 64.

EXECUTIVE PROTECTION

Insurance, a New Defense Against Terrorism. October, Page 20.

Training Techniques for Executive Protection. February, Page 36.

FIRE PREVENTION & DETECTION

Fire Protection for Flammable Materials. July, Page 36.

Security World Equipment Focus: Fire Protection Systems. March, Page 30.

Fire Safety Means Using the Right Equipment. May, Page 44.

Keep Fire Systems Functioning. May, Page 50.

Keeping Up With Fire Codes. March, Page 28.

MGM Grand: Gambling With Fire Safety? March, Page 20.

MGM Grand Update: $5 Million Fire System. June, Page 40.

The New Haven Arson Program One Year Later. March, Page 26.

A New Idea in Fire Blankets. January, Page 33.

Sprinkler Systems: Cost Effective Fire Fighter. August, Page 54.

GUARDS

Strong Security With a British Flavor. March, Page 34.

Security World Survey: Contract/Proprietary Guards: How They Suit Users' Needs. July, Page 20.

HIGH RISK SECURITY

A Ring of Security for a Royal Wedding. December, Page 32.

Integrating Safeguards for Nuclear Security. March, Page 40.

Nuclear Plant Security Needs a Systems Approach. June, Page 24.

Security at the NY Telephone Company. May, Page 36.

The FAA's Security Challenge: Quick and Constant Coordination. December, Page 28.

HOSPITAL SECURITY

Security and Safety Walk Hand in Hand. September, Page 28.

INDUSTRIAL SECURITY

Controlling Pilferage in Industrial Plants. May, Page 31.

R & D Security: Protecting Your Profit Potential. June, Page 38.

Securing a Shipping Dock. May, Page 26.

INVESTIGATIONS

Appraising the Successful Investigator. January, Page 40.

Interviews & Interrogations. May, Page 48.

LIABILITY

Be Sure Your Security is Legally Secure. June, Page 34.

Watch What You Say in an Interview. October, Page 30.

PERIMETER PROTECTION

Security World Equipment Focus: Perimeter Protection. September, Page 44.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Security & Public Relations: Crisis Reporting. January, Page 35.

RETAIL SECURITY

20th Century Security in a 19th Century Setting. April, Page 34.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Risk Management: Balancing Threats and Protection. April, Page 30.

SECURITY EDUCATION

Security Education: Where to Get It. January, Page 21.

SECURITY MANAGEMENT

Blending Basic Elements for Budget Solutions. December, Page 20.

Evaluations Can Ease Security Staff Management. September, Page 36.

Organizing a Security Department. May, Page 34.

SECURITY SPECIFICATION

Specifying a Security System. February, Page 29.

SECURITY WORLD SURVEYS

Security World Survey: Contract/Proprietary Guards: How They Suit Users' Needs. July, Page 20.

Security World Survey: What Corporate Executives are Thinking about Security. October, Page 35.

Security Retrofit & Review Survey. February, Page 20.

SPACE PROTECTION

Security World Equipment Focus: Space Protection. October, Page 26.